

Also, unfavorably,

The Senate bill entitled an Act to amend Article 59, of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to mandamus, by adding thereto additional sections.

The report was adopted, and

Said Bill returned to the Senate.

The time having arrived for considering bills upon a second reading,

On motion of Mr. Biddison,

The rules were suspended,

And the House proceeded to the consideration of bills entitled to a third reading.

The bill entitled an Act to appropriate a sum of money to be paid to John de la Camp, in compensation for services in completing the maps of surveys heretofore made by commissioners appointed by the Act of 1856, chapter 220, to trace and define the boundary lines between Maryland and Virginia,

Was read a third time, and passed by yeas and nays as follows :
